Pumpkin Hunt Is Success

The sponsors of the First Annual Monterey Peninsula Outdoor Pumpkin Hunt, which was held at Veteran's Memorial Park in Monterey on October 28, wish to thank all participants and sponsors for their help in making it a success. They also wish to extend a special thanks to: Seaside Safeway, Super Save Market, Russo's Fish & Vegetable, Bea-con's Gas Station, Monte Mart, Oberg's Restaurant, Troia's Market, La Cantina-Mission Inn, Carmel Meat Company, Mac's Market, Seaside Market, Monterey Peninsula College, Healthway House, Anderson's Egg House (Morgan Hill, Ca.). A very personal thanks goes to the Harnbe Medical Clinic for providing the pumpkins for the occasion.

I'VE GOT TO TALK TO SOMEBODY GOD
-Marjorie Holmes-

A.E. Barragan

Today there are no silent hillside. We are crowded in upon one another. We are assaulted on all sides by radio, television, the printed word. We are taught to verbalize from a tender age. We have made almost a fetish of "communication."

Yet today there is so little genuine communication. The very push and pressure of living among so many people has driven us deeper inside ourselves. There, we are locked in a lonely prison. It is a secret a special place, a place for our own protection, yet a place of anxieties and fears, where the loneliness can be intolerable, unless we find God there.

So we talk to God. Not because it is a last resort, but because we know He listens. And we have to talk to somebody.

I grew up in a very healthy, vigorous, old-fashioned church where prayer was public and loud and frequently emotional, or something rattled off in private to get it over with. Yet there was another kind of praying that stirred and nudged and worked within me even then. Whose voice would not be stilled even during the years of agnosticism and near atheism which many of us must undergo. Eventually my own common sense rescued me from my so-called intellectualism. I began a sincere search for God and

United Fund Students Progressing Need Work Fair Is Scheduled

The Monterey Peninsula United Fund has announced that it had raised over $60,000 of a projected $230,000 goal in the 1972-1973 campaign commenced just five weeks ago.

Campaign chairman Robert C. Pelz, a Monterey banker, said that the early surge was due in great part of the advance gifts division, headed up by Del Monte Properties president Alfred Gauthier, and Phyllis Carmichael's residential committee.

"This is a good showing considering who have yet to hear from our always reliable business and corporate divisions," Pelz said. "We are certain they will be coming in soon and this will give the drive a great boost."

Pelz added that the military campaign at Fort Ord, the Naval Postgraduate School and the Defense Language Institute is a big annual contributor to the United Fund, but that these results generally show later in the fall.

Potential contributors can take part in the drive by contacting the United Fund office, 807 Cass St., Telephone 372-8026.

One hundred sixty Seaside, 45 Marina and 30 Fort Ord students, ages 16-22, are currently registered with the Student Employment Service of the Monterey Peninsula after school and weekend work.

Loren E. Smith, newly elected president of the Student Employment Service committee, said, "Although we have filled our 1060 job openings this year, which is a record high for our youth program, our goal for 1972 is 1200 youth placements," Smith said, "to accomplish this and to assist the students in obtaining employment we need the support of all employers on the peninsula."

Smith stated, "The Committee and I recognized that this is normally a slack employment period resulting in a scarcity of jobs for youths; however, employers who place their orders for student help with SES are referred students who have voluntarily registered for work and have been individually interviewed. Students selected by the SES representative for job referrals are screened to meet employer requirements. Permanent employment records are maintained on all registered students."

Bazaar To Be Held

Daughters of the British Empire "YORKSHIRE MOORS CHAPTER" will hold a Christmas Bazaar in the "Don Room" at the San Carlos Hotel Monterey on Friday, November 3 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

All items offered for sale are suitable for gift giving. They have toys, dolls, handcrafts, and many unique items. They will raffle a four room doll house at 25 cents per ticket. All proceeds will go to the aged. There will also be a take sale.

Daughters of the British Empire is a philanthropic non-profit national society. Their purpose is the support of a home for British aged in Sierra Madre and also the support of local charity, our chapter supporting "ALLIANCE ON AGING" on the Monterey Peninsula.

They are interested in new women members of British ancestry interested in giving a little of their time and talents with nothing in return but the satisfaction of having helped to provide comfort for the aged. For further information write: Mrs. Skinner (Regent), D.B.E. Yorkshire Moors Chapter, 1025 Highland Street, Seaside, California 93955.

Monterey County Labor For McGovern Formed

A Monterey County chapter of Northern California Labor For McGovern-Shriver has been formed to help bring the campaign of the Democratic nominee to working men and women in this area. Nine co-chairmen, representing eight local unions, are sending a letter to all local unions and carrying on educational activity on the campaign. In their letter, the co-chairmen state:

"We are agreed that the main job of the Labor Movement in the next few weeks is to defeat Richard Nixon so that wage controls and threats of compulsory arbitration and right-to-work will be defeated, and government for the benefit of the people may be re-established. George McGovern rates 91 percent 'Right' on labor votes in the United States Senate, as tallied by AFL-CIO COPE. We believe that he is a candidate who will respond to the needs of working men and women, and dozens of unions representing millions of workers have endorsed his candidacy." The letter was signed by Ri-

Political Editorial

For over twelve years the American people have spent billions and billions of dollars on a futile, unnecessary war in Vietnam. Thousands upon thousands of young American men have lost their lives fighting for a cause which didn't exist or at least a cause which they did not understand. Four years ago, when Richard Nixon was elected president, he vowed that he would end this senseless war, and according to the best information available he is doing so.

The greatest issue that faces any people at any time is Peace, peace at home. Peace with the opportunity to raise one's family without fear that maybe "I'll be next." The man who can eventually bring about that peace throughout the world will go down in history as one of the saviours of humanity. President Nixon is coming very close to becoming that man.

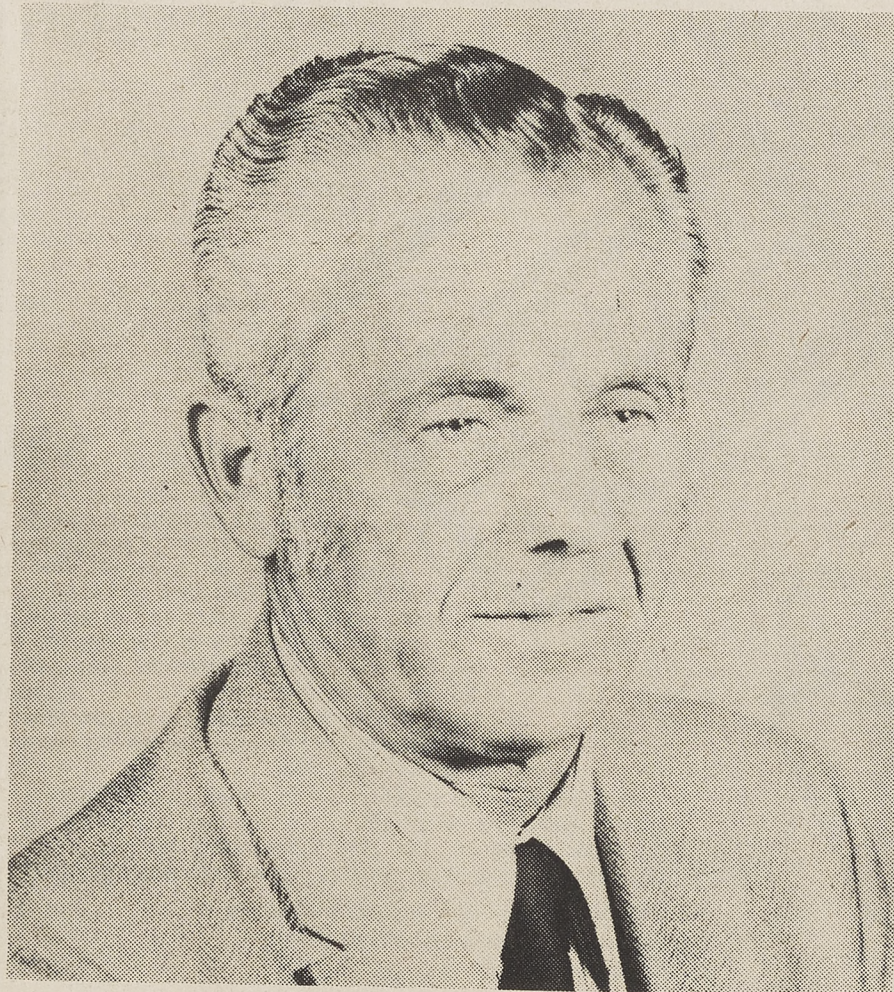

It took a lot of courage and political acumen to arrange for, plan and finally meet with the leaders of Communist China. No previous recent President could have accomplished that feat. Nixon did it in spite of the criticism leveled at him from his own party and I am sure the trip did not set too well with the Pentagon who under previous administrations seemed to have had the ear of the President. In our opinion, that courageous act will guarantee peace in Asia for decades to come.

Next, President Nixon again through very adroit political maneuvering was able to arrange a meeting with the Soviet leaders in Moscow. The purpose of the meeting in Moscow is what we've all been yearning for for years; and that was a realistic step toward disarmament. The agreement reached in Moscow, a disarmament, did not set well with those who would continue fighting "anywhere" just to maintain the power of the Pentagon and just to continue the spending of billions of dollars almost daily to keep the military-industrial complex making excess profits. President Nixon has not yet set an end to this but we are sure the agreement reached in Moscow will slow down the armament race. On domestic issues President Nixon surprised all of us early in his administration in proposing Social Security and Welfare measures which would have guaranteed an adequate annual wage for every person in the country. The measure has not come out of the Congress because the Democrats have not allowed it to. They are jealous that the Republicans have stepped into their bailiwick. It is also true that Nixon vetoed many bills which we would have been in favor of mostly those dealing with Education and Welfare. However, his overall program on domestic issues has been better than that from any previous Republican President.

Another accomplishment of President Nixon

Proposition 2 Will Mean Better Health Care

Proposition 2 will mean better health care for the people of California without increasing property taxes, since its cost will not be paid from property tax sources.

California needs more doctors, dentists, nurses and other absolutely essential health personnel if people in this state are to be maintained in good health. Crowded waiting rooms, unavailable physicians, "no house calls" and skyrocketing costs are only some indications of an impending health care crisis. Other indications are more serious.

All California medical schools combined—public and private—produce only 600 physicians annually, yet three times that number will be required annually just to maintain the existing California ratio of physicians to population.

California's medical and dental schools are forced to turn away 90% - 95% of the qualified applications because space and training facilities are lacking. These problems are worsening every year.

By increasing the supply of health care personnel and services in the face of rapidly growing demand, Proposition 2 will help to control spiraling health care costs. It will do so at the cost of just 50¢ per year per person over the life of the bonds and it will bring to California nearly $100 million in federal matching funds to help us achieve this goal.

By dramatically increasing California's output of physicians, dentists, nurses, optometrists, medical researchers, pharmacists and veterinarians, Proposition 2 will help assure that California citizens will not needlessly suffer and even die for lack of medical care when they need it.

A vote for Proposition 2 is a vote for your good health as well as that of your family and friends.

The John Steinbeck Library will be open on Sunday for the next three months beginning with October 29 from 1-5 p.m.

This is an experimental period to see whether the service is needed in the community.

Bola Sete To Appear At MPC

Brilliant Brazilian guitarist Bola Sete will appear in concert at Monterey Peninsula College Friday November 3 at 8:15 p.m. in the MPC Theatre.

Noted for his mastery of all styles of guitar, Bola Sete prefers the music he heard while growing up as a boy in Brazil. Much of his music is the folk music he listened to when first learning to play the guitar. His concert at MPC will include the best of his own works and other Brazilian composers.

Bola's first major performance in the United States was at the Monterey Jazz Festival with Dizzie Gillespie. After that festival, he toured with Gillespie, eventually performing in concert by himself. He now lives in California.

A popular artist at college and university campuses, Bola Sete has played engagements at most of California's colleges, including UC-Berkeley, San Jose State, UC-Davis and many more.

Tickets for the MPC performance may be obtained by calling Community Services, 375-9821, ext. 335.

Supports Propositions

The Monterey Peninsula College Faculty Association has gone on record supporting three key propositions on the November ballot while coming out firmly on another. The controversial Proposition 14, The Watson Initiative, was soundly opposed by members of the association, according to Ken Peterson, president. If passed, the Watson initiative would place junior colleges such as MPC under state funding, this threatening local control by district residents, the faculty members felt. The association supported Proposition 1, which would allow for issuance of bonds for needed construction in California community colleges. The faculty also went on record favoring Proposition A on the county ballot and Proposition 20.

Monterey Peninsula Herald

Monterey, California, Wednesday, May 31, 1972.

Poyner For Supervisor

THE RACE for Monterey County District 4 supervisor is a mixture of old, familiar political names on the Peninsula and one not so well known as yet. The campaign has brought to the surface a wide variety of approaches to issues and problems, and the democratic process has a chance to work at its best.

There are some other considerations, as well. The realignment of District 4 borders has placed almost half its voting population in the cities of Monterey and Del Rey Oaks. This would suggest that these two communities, joined together by common interests and a common postal address, deserve special representation on the board of supervisors.

The candidate uniquely qualified to provide that representation is Roger W. Poyner, who following his graduation from law school in 1966 served three years as assistant city manager for Monterey. Since 1969 he has been a practicing attorney on the Peninsula with an active civic life.

Currently he is president of the Council of Monterey Bay, a private organization interested in the total economic and ecological environment of the Peninsula. It was as COMB's educational committee chairman that he played an instrumental role in bringing an extension of Golden Gate College to Monterey.

In recognition of his services to the community, he was selected "Young Man of the Year" by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1970. He is 36 years of age, the youngest of the candidates for the District 4 supervisorial seat.

Roger Poyner has no spectacular proposals to cure all of Monterey County's ills, but his campaign and his record as a private citizen suggest that he would bring to the job he seeks hard work, common sense and high integrity.

Roger Poyner's training in the law, his comparative youth and his administrative experience in Monterey's city government give him a competence and a potential contribution to the board of supervisors possessed by none of his opponents.

And the fact that Roger Poyner is not part of the old Fourth District's political tradition is evidence he would use that competence for the entire county's good. The Herald recommends the election of Roger Poyner as supervisor representing District 4 in the June 6 primary.

Toro area voters will have a major say in the election of the fourth district supervisor Nov. 7. They will need vigorous representation as both candidates will be peninsula men. The Salinas Californian recommends the election of Roger Poyner to the position. The Californian did not arrive at its recommendation without long and serious consideration. It realizes incumbent Supervisor Loren Smith has more than four years of experience in the job. But the Toro area has growing problems which often require a new, and fresh approach. This is why we have decided to support Poyner.

He is young, 36, but there are many people in the same age group living in the Toro area, the young professional, the school teacher and others who seek the country life.

Further, Poyner singles out water as the major Toro problem. He believes that development is the real issue. Developmental policies should be established by the board, he feels, because master plans and zoning aren't enough. The importance of this issue was pointed up by the water shortage and/or failure of many wells in the area this summer. The critical situation showed the immediate need for present and long-range action.

Poyner, despite his youthfulness, has good experience. He has been in private law practice for the past three years. Prior to this, he served as Monterey's assistant city manager. His interest in government is shown by his bachelor's degree in political science at UCLA. His interest in the community is shown by his receiving the Young Man of the Year award from the Monterey Jaycees in 1970.

Poyner zeroes in on Toro problems such as development, stating, "Development should only come if other problems (water, sewage, roads and open space) can be solved."

We think Poyner is ready to assume a position on the county board and to protect the "Pastures of Heaven," our beautiful Toro section.

for spiritual enlightenment. I read many books, some of them very helpful.

I learned that simply to ask a blessing upon one's circumstances, whatever they are, is somehow to improve them, and to tap some mysterious source of energy and joy. I learned that to affirm and to claim God's help even before it is given, is to receive it. But whenever such books and writings attempted to set forth formulas, by which one might better reach the ever-listening ear, they lost me. For the average, busy, groping, faulty individual, there must be a more direct, attainable way.

One day I realized that the only times I actually felt in contact with what I sought, and drew help and encouragement from it, were those spontaneous times when prayers simply leaped up of their own volition. In words, in song, sometimes even in such acts as dancing, swimming, or scrubbing the floor. Now, I WANT TO TALK TO SOMEBODY, GOD! I want to talk about my friend.

I don't believe I've ever thought to thank you, God, for this wonderful friend. But I do thank you for creating her and letting her enrich my life this way.

Thank you for all the years we've known each other and the confidences and hopes and troubles that we've shared.

Thank you for the understanding we bring to each other. For the patience we have with each other's faults; for the advice and even the scoldings we are able to give each other without either of us taking offense. Thank you for the help we have been to each other. Thank you that because of her I am a better, happier person, and that she has grown as a person too because of me.

Thank you that she would give me anything in her power - whatever my need, and that she knows I would be as quick to respond. Thank you that we can laugh together, cry together, rejoice together. And although we may not see each other for a long time, when we do come together it is always the same. Lord, bless and keep this person you fashioned and filled with qualities that have meant so much to me. Thank you for my friend.

While I am talking to SOMEBODY, GOD - Let me thank you for this faith I have in the future unfolding before us. Help me remember that I don't have to choose up sides. That my own faith has nothing to do with either kind of people.

Faith is my own private need of you reaching out to find you.

Faith is my own intelligence responding to yours.

My faith is my knowledge that in your vast intelligence you created this world - and me - and the people who try to run it and make it a more livable creation. My faith is my growing conviction that you are not off somewhere running the universe, but here, now, with me. That you care about me and the world we live in.

Without this faith, we would never have believed the miracle you performed right here within our tightly woven family of friends. A miracle that will never be forgotten as long as this Earth shall live. Thank you for this faith.

As the many voters go out on November 7th to cast the vote for their choice, I have the faith that you will guide them.

Camacho Taxes Are Steps Up Distributed Campaign

With Election Day only a week off, Democratic Congressional candidate Julian Camacho has shifted into high gear in his efforts to meet the voters.

Wednesday is "Monterey" County Day" for the Democratic congressional nominee. Visits with voters in the business and residential areas of Monterey and Seaside are the order of the day. Camacho will be the guest on the Dick Bragg show, KIDD, Wednesday night, 7 to 9 p.m.

Thursday Mr. Camacho will spend in the Salinas area, meeting voters and discussing the issues of the campaign: tax reform, jobs, the environment, Vietnam.

Thursday evening at 7 Camacho will address the National Federation of Federal Employees at Monterey City Hall in the Council Room. He will speak about "the national medical services delivery crisis" stressing the need for National Health Security.

Friday and Saturday Camacho will meet the voters and which most people do not realize is his appointment of minorities to high posts in his administration. We have evidence, records, photographs as to the many blacks, Mexican-Americans, Filipinos, Puerto Ricans and other so call non-white men who now hold these high posts due to their appointment by President Nixon. Nixon has appointed more non-whites to his administration than all of the previous Democratic administrations put together. The Democrats have promised them jobs in return for votes but when the election was won somehow the jobs never materialized.

We could go on and on with other major accomplishments of the Nixon administration and as we said before we could also point out some of the issues that we did not agree with. However, it is our opinion that Nixon's long experience in government has given him an insight and an ability to analyze and to carry through some of the most difficult tasks that will face our nation in the immediate future. We don't believe that anybody in the Democratic Party has that ability to follow through and accomplish what has to be done in negotiating with China and Russia to insure that Peace which we all desire. Senator McGovern is a fine man and we have agreed with many of his positions in Congress, but for this gigantic task that lies ahead we just don't believe that he has the experience and political stability to take over the Presidency at this time. For that reason and many others we recommend the re-election of President Nixon.

We highly recommend the election of Julian Camacho for the post of Congressman for the 12th District. At the time Camacho first started his campaign for Congress, he already had had much experience in working in community affairs. He was elected as one of "Five Outstanding Young Men of California" by the State Chamber of Commerce and was also elected to the Santa Cruz County Board of Education.

Camacho has impressed us with his strong campaigning against the war in Vietnam. He says "Get out of Vietnam completely now." With this we have agreed for a long time. His opponent, Burt Talcott, has been one of the leaders in Congress to continue the war in Vietnam. Camacho advocates the end of the arms race. His opponent Talcott has consistently voted for high and higher appropriations for armament. Camacho believes in equal rights for anyone regardless of race, sex, age, or creed. His opponent voted no on the Civil Rights Act of 1968. We could go on and on in the differences of philosophy between Camacho and Talcott, but suffice it to say that we are recommending Camacho for election of the 12th Congressional District because we believe he will consistently vote for the benefit of the people rather than for the benefit of the special interest.

We recommend for re-election to the State Senate Don Grunsky. Grunsky has been a member of the California State Legislature since 1947, six years in the Assembly and 20 years in the Senate. In recognition by the voters of his ability and integrity, Senator Grunsky has received the nominations of both Republican and Democratic Parties. In six of his nine previous political campaigns, five without opposition, Grunsky is what you would call a middle of the road Republican. He votes the issues as he sees them regardless of whether they are Democratic or Republican sponsored. We highly recommend the re-election of Senator Grunsky.

There is no question where this newspaper stands on the election of a member for the assembly from the 34th District. It is Bob Wood. "Common Cause," the national citizens lobby which has been lobbying Congress and the State Legislatures to pass measures which benefit the people rather than the "special interests," has cited Assemblyman Bob Wood as having one of the best voting records on legislative and electoral reform bills during the past session of the legislature.

The lobby said Wood had the second highest ranking of any Republican assemblyman and ranked 16th in the 80 member California Assembly. This citation and record proved that Bob Wood has his own mind and is not a tool of the very rich "special interests" that could easily influence him in the Salinas Valley. For that reason we repeat that we highly recommend the re-election of Bob Wood.

Loren E. Smith, our incumbent Supervisor from the 4th District, has done a good job in representing Seaside and Marina and his entire District during tenure in office. Supervisor Smith is retired and spends full time on his job as supervisor and on the many other committees of which he is a member. One of his outstanding achievements as President of the Students Employment Service Committee was to provide over 1,000 jobs for students in 1972. The reason Supervisor Smith has been able to do such a good job for Seaside and the rest of the 4th District is because he was manager of the Seaside Branch of the Bank of America and in that position became intimately acquainted with his District and its problems. Upon assuming the job of Supervisor he immediately set about to try to solve many of those problems. He has been successful in most cases. His opponent Roger Poyner, an attorney, is an able young man, 37 years old. But we do not feel at this time that with his duties to his law office that he would be able to spend the time taking care of the problems of the 4th District as does Supervisor Smith. Poyner is young and we are sure will make a name for himself in the political affairs of Monterey county or even higher as he progresses upward and obtains more experience. We don't think this is Poyner's year for election to public office because of the above statement, therefore, we are recommending Supervisor Loren Smith for re-election as Supervisor for the 4th District.

Our vote on the Monterey Peninsula Regional Park District is NO.

REVENUE SHARING -
CONTINUED

On March 3, 1972, Houston I. Flournoy, Controller of the State of California, sent a letter to all City Councils and County Boards of Supervisors. This letter contained statements showing the amounts estimated to be paid to each city in Monterey County during fiscal year ending June 30, 1973.

For those cities that have the special revenue sharing, specifically Seaside's Revenue Sharing Agreement pertaining to Highway Users Tax 2106 fund, that extend into Fiscal Year 1972-73, these are the amounts by respective cities, which are sharing Fort Ord population taxes from the City of Seaside.

Carmel	$1,642.00;	Del Rey Oaks	$659.00;	Gonzales	$951.00;	Greenfield	$939.00;	King City	$1,338.00;	Monterey	$9,471.00;	Pacific Grove	$4,898.00;	Salinas	$21,209.00;	San City	$76.00;	Soledad	$1,520.00;	Seaside	($12,500.00);	TOTAL	$55,000.00

Bob Wood Reports

While most of the 22 Propositions on next Tuesday's ballot reflect only upon State issues, at least two and possibly three hold potentially greater significance throughout the nation. One of these is Proposition 17, the death penalty initiative. The proposal is aimed at overturning a California Supreme Court decision outlawing the death penalty. Win or lose, it is being watched by states where capital punishment has been abolished by the U.S. Supreme Court decision.

Another initiative of major importance is Proposition 22, the Agricultural Labor Relations Act, which would prohibit secondary boycotts of farm products and strikes at harvest time and give (eligible) farm workers the right to secret elections in their choice of union representation. This also could have national repercussions. According to the information we have received here in Sacramento, many states other than California have witnessed the methods used by Cesar Chavez in recruiting members and they question the type of tactics that have been used. The success of Proposition 22 could prompt other states to pass similar laws throughout the country and possibly add impetus to the passage of a federal law on agricultural labor relations similar to the NLRB regulations governing industry.

Letter to the Editor

Editor: I want to immediately correct a misleading article given Front Page prominence in your edition of 10/25/72 entitled "Moser Tells Rotarians Seaside Needs More Parks." There was no consensus taken at that Meeting either for or against Measure "A" on next Tuesday's Ballot. As a matter of fact, there were members present, including myself, who oppose this Measure "A," but Mr. Moser was given the courtesy of the Rostrum to present his side of the issue.

The proposed District is nothing more than another layer of unnecessary government with taxing powers and responsible to Nobody. It merely duplicates the services of already existing State and Local Agencies. Taxpayers will merely be paying out $300,000 per year as a starter to pay a Board to sit around and study plans after 10 years.

Ninety percent of Monterey County is in open space. County Officials have already made tremendous strides in the openings of Jack's Peak Park, Toro Regional Park, and Royal Oaks Park. The City of Monterey has park areas it hasn't even improved yet for lack of funds, like Don Dahvee Park, and the City of Seaside has Roberts Lake, Laguna Grande, and numerous neighborhood parks in the planning stages.

What is needed is not more special districts and additional tax burdens for no purpose, but funds placed in the hands of existing Agencies to acquire and improve what is already available to the area residents. Measure "A" is a No, No.

Tom Lauenroth, the newest member of the Seaside Police Department, is a native of California. Tom was born in Oakland. He graduated from Mariposa High School in the city of Mariposa, then entered the local college for higher education. His schooling was interrupted when he received a call from "Uncle Sam." Tom spent two years with the U.S. Army as a Military Police Sergeant. After being discharged from the Army at Fort Hood, Texas in April of 1970, he returned to California. Tom has lived and worked in the Yosemite National Park for the past ten years.

Tom, now a resident of the city of Seaside, lives with his wife and son. He said that he always wanted to get back to the coast where he could enjoy ocean fishing.

When I asked Tom about higher education, he stated that he is planning to attend the spring semester at MPC and continue his college education.

Tom's first day with the Seaside Police Department was 10-27-72. He was hired from a group of 51 persons who took the State exam for police officer. Tom placed in the top three. It is a pleasure to welcome him as a member of the Seaside Police Department.

Chamber of Commerce Progress Report

by Verlaine Crawford,
Executive Director

ACTION IS THE WORD! SEASIDE IS ON THE MOVE!

The General Membership Luncheon at the Holiday Inn on Wednesday, October 25 was a huge success. Fifty-five members and guests participated in an interesting round table discussion with each person presenting his suggestion for the improvement of Seaside.

- After each table had voted on the best suggestion, we received this list of suggestions for the Chamber of Commerce:
1. Relax Building and sign ordinances.
 2. Begin beautification of businesses.
 3. Develop more Chamber advertising.
 4. Create a friendly climate in Seaside.
 5. Create more jobs (pay-rolls).
 6. Convince Seaside people to buy in Seaside (merchants).
 7. Develop strong civic pride.
 8. Centralized business district.
 9. Always keep citizens and general public aware of all city projects.
 10. Get bus service from Fort Ort to Seaside.

The individual suggestions, written on cards, were very good and after compiling them, I will put them in next weeks column.

At the regular Board of Directors meeting on Thursday, October 26, Don Butts reported on his study of Proposition 20. The Board unanimously recommended a No vote on Proposition 20. They opposed the Proposition because it is so poorly drafted, and there is no clear definition of where the "Coastal Area" is located, no boundaries of authority, and it could cause severe repercussions to our local area.

Explains

Types Of Garage Sales

There are garage sales and there are garage sales--some subject to sales tax, some not. Board of Equalization Member George R. Reilly of the First Equalization District recently explained guidelines used by the Board in determining the application of sales tax to garage sales and similar activities. He classified this type of sales into two categories: goods sold by the businessman or professional seller, and goods sold by the amateur or occasional seller.

When an individual or group specifically buys, gathers or otherwise acquires merchandise for the express purpose of selling by means of a garage, patio or yard sale held at a residential location, the individual or group is considered to be in the business of selling, sales taxes are applicable, and a seller's permit is required. Such operations will be subject to investigation by the Board of Equalization, Reilly said.

Common Cause Praises Wood

Common Cause, the national citizen's lobby, has named Assemblyman Bob Wood as having one of the best voting records on legislative and electoral reform bills during the past session of the California Legislature.

Wood had the second highest rating of any Republican Assemblyman and was ranked 16th in the 80-member Assembly. The rating was based on the percentage of votes cast for legislation to "end secrecy and the influence of money" in Sacramento.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS FOR SEASIDE

The Board of Directors also decided at the last meeting to buy the strings of garlands and lights to decorate the Pylons in the Auto Center and turn them into giant, 100 Feet, Christmas Trees. They felt that this would make a tremendous impact for the businesses in Seaside.

The lights will be purchased on a 3-year lease basis, so all members of the Chamber will be expected to help pay for this outstanding effort. (The Auto Dealers Association will also contribute towards these decorations).

It was found, after talking to P.G. & E. and the Telephone Company, that very few poles in Seaside are available for hanging decorations. Therefore, the Board felt that two giant Christmas trees would be more exciting than a few lanterns or angels scattered throughout the city. Naturally, we hope that all businesses and home owners will decorate for the holiday season.

NEW BOARD MEMBERS ELECTED

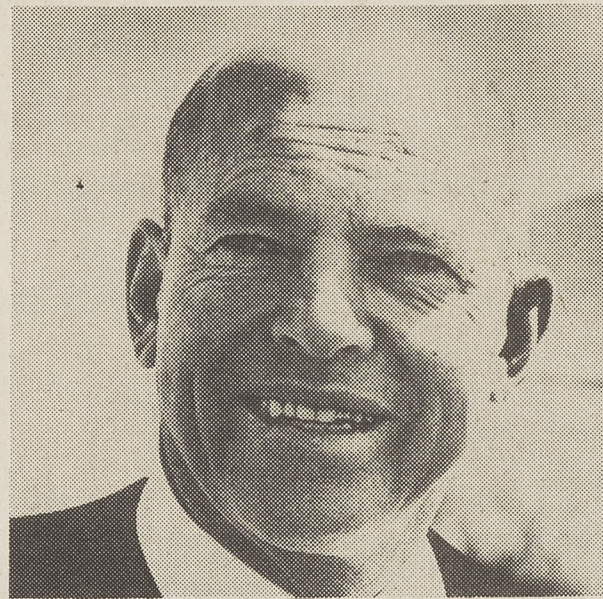

The results of the election for seven new Board Members for the Chamber are as follows: Don Butts, Butts Pontiac-Cadillac; Dick Penrose, Seaside Pharmacy; Larry Nelson, Wells Fargo Bank; Mark Sincoff, Attorney; Cecil Bindel, Cecil's Ice Cream and Pizza Pub; Carl Oliver, H & H Supply; Fred Sandman, McDonalds of Seaside.

Officers will be elected after the new Board comes into office. The initiation of Officers will be held in January.

RETAIN STRONG LEADERSHIP

The well-being of our working men and women is dependent upon a healthy economy and full employment under our private enterprise system. To maintain this, we must have qualified and experienced legislators in Sacramento to cope with the complicated problems in such areas as industrial safety, workmen's compensation, disability insurance, unemployment insurance and collective bargaining. Senator Grunsky's reelection has the official endorsement of C.O.P.E., the Committee on Political Education, which is the political arm of the AFL-CIO, and also the California Teamsters Legislative Council.

ARMY RECRUITER

Hello everyone. TODAY'S ARMY is seeking more young women, and with all the benefits we have to offer will make more women seek TODAY'S ARMY. The Women's Army Corps is to double in size by 1978. Women will also be filling jobs formerly open only to men. The number of jobs open to women has been greatly increased to include everything but combat-type positions. There are presently 12,400 women in TODAY'S ARMY can now choose from 434 different enlisted occupational specialties. Of the 482 specialties open, 48 of them are combat related and restricted to men.

For you women who want to work overseas, you may now be assigned there immediately after training. Until now, all women in TODAY'S ARMY had to serve at least one year in the Continental United States before being eligible. Not only are women now eligible for practically every Army job, they still are receiving the same benefits they always have. Just like their male counterparts, they get a starting salary of $288.00 a month, get 30 days paid vacation each year, free room and board and a complete medical and dental care program.

Not only can women in TODAY'S ARMY look forward to new jobs and options, they can now plan for improvements in the uniform. Already, a complete redesign of the uniform wardrobe is in the works. Several other changes are effective right now.

A black felt beret leads the list of optional items, along with white blouses, white gloves and scarfs, black raincoats and umbrellas. Also the women can now carry black leather clutch handbags and wear black leather pumps. Women in basic training now have light green training duty uniforms made up of shorts, shirtwaist blouse and wraparound skirt. So you can see women that TODAY'S ARMY is hanging right in there. It has everything for talented young women who want to move ahead in life.

For more information concerning TODAY'S ARMY please contact us 372-4742/372-0553. Or

Ord Vehicles Going to Be Auctioned

Ft. Ord is about to hold an auction. One hundred and four- teen assorted trucks, station- wagons, trailers, sedans and buses will go to the highest bidder November 9 starting at 9 a.m.

The site of the sale is building 3269 and would be bidders should register for the sale at the site before 8 a.m., the morning of the event. On site inspection of the mass of ve- hicles will be allowed from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. weekdays excluding holidays.

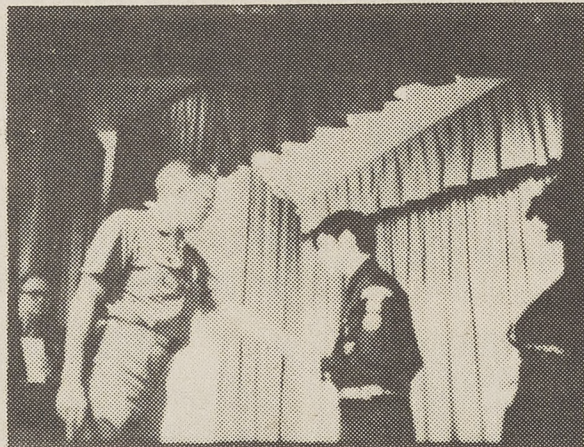

The sale is open to the gen- eral public. Terms and con- ditions will be posted on the sale site. Mailed, hand carried, telephonic and telegraphic bids will not be accepted.

You must be present to partici- pate. There will be no bid deposit required. Personal checks will be accepted. Personal identification may be re- quired when payment is made by personal check.

You may pay for and re- move your purchase on the day of the sale but you must move it away on or before Nov. 24, 1972.

This is a Department of De- fense, Defense Supply Agency, local auction and persons con- nected in any manner with the Defense Property Disposal Program are barred from the bidding.

ADVANCES - Mark Braxton, 19th Eagle Scout of Ord Terrace Pack 35, is pictured as he is made Explorer Scout. Mark, 15-1/2 years old, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Braxton of Seaside. Presently Mark is enrolled at Mon- terey High School. He is Assistant Scout Master and holds Leadership Corps Badge. His friend David McFarlan was 18th Eagle Scout of Pack 35. Mark wishes to thank Mr. Work, Mr. Dean and the entire community for all their help.

Camacho Blasts Talcott

Julian Camacho, Democra- tic candidate for Congress, blasted incumbent Burt Tal- cott recently for what he termed "slandering, intentional mis- statements" concerning Mr. Camacho's campaign contribu- tions. Responding to an article that appeared in Monday's "San Luis Obispo Telegram- Tribune" in which Mr. Talcott is quoted as saying "Camacho is getting his money from Chavez," the Democratic nominee firmly asserted that he has re- ceived "neither campaign con- tributions nor the political en- dorsement of Cesar Chavez or the United Farm Workers."

"Burt Talcott has made these slanderous charges maliciously, with the intention of deceiving the voters. I challenge him to come forward with one shred of evidence showing that my cam- paign for Congress has re- ceived any funds whatsoever from Cesar Chavez or the United Farm Workers. Talcott will not, cannot produce such evi- dence, because it does not exist. Talcott won't come forward now. He has refused to come forward in the past, to debate with me. And why? Because Burt Talcott is afraid of the truth."

"The truth is," continued Mr. Camacho, "that I am the endorsed candidate in this cam- paign, not by the UFW, but by the Teamsters, the AFL-CIO, the United Steel Workers, the Machinists, the United Rubber Workers, the United Auto Workers, the Longshoremen, I am the candidate of the work- ing men and women of the 12th Congressional District, be they

Fish Jumpin' At Camanche North Shore

Largemouth bass led the way to a very good week of fishing reports Camanche North Shore marina manager, Art Price. Nice limits were reported taken on surface lures early and late around the stickups and shallow points, but lunkers in the 5 to 7 pound class are a bit deeper. Jigs and spinner baits worked on the drop-offs in 18 to 25 feet of water are ac- counting for most of the heavy stringers.

Catfishermen are reporting in with nice catches of channels from China Gulch and the upper lake area around the bridge farm workers or truck drivers or cooks or construction work- ers."

says Price. Most are on the small side but a few larger fish to 18 pounds have been taken. Best baits for these wiskered fish have been night- crawlers, minnows and cutan- chovies. A few rainbows have begun to show up but reports are sparse. Kokanee are spawning and fishing for these popular little salmon is very slow. Crappie fishing is good for those locating brush in 15 to 20 feet of water and using maribou jigs or small min- nows, but very few are trying their luck on the slabsides.

Wes Lane, manager of Ca- manche North Shore's Rabbit Creek Hunting Club, reports excellent pheasant shooting with good feed and cover holding the stocked birds on the club's 1500 acres. 100% recovery is now being made. A few ducks and geese are here now, says Lane, but another northern storm or two is needed to bring them in in quantities. Feed and cover are also excellent for these birds and should provide lots of shooting shortly. Price said, Camanche North Shore will remain open, with all facilities in operation throughout the winter.

Candidates Respond To Common Cause Questioning

Common Cause, the non-partisan citizen's lobby, reports replies have been received from both major party candidates for 12th district U.S. Congressman stating their positions on key legislative issues.

David Whipple, 12th district coordinator for Project Open Up The System said, "I want to thank both candidates for their cooperation in this effort to provide the residents of the district with recorded responses to questions of both local and national importance. Common Cause believes that the legislative process must be as open and responsive to constituent scrutiny and desires as possible. It is to this end that the present project was undertaken on a national scale."

The questions and the candidates responses follow:

1. Will you support in your party caucus an end to the seniority system by requiring an automatic, public vote on each individual committee chairmanship?

Camacho - Yes.
Talcott - No "I have made a better proposal to reform the seniority system."

2. Will you vote in your party caucus to require all Congressional committees to vote and meet in open session except in cases of national security and personal privacy, and to open all sessions and votes of party caucuses to the public and the press?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - "Most of my committee meetings are public - I prefer public meetings."

3. Will you support Senator Chiles' open meetings bill (S 3881) or the companion bill in the House of Representatives?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Undecided - "I do not know it."

4. Do you favor public financing of most election costs, and a limit on individual contributions?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - No - Regarding public financing portion; yes - Regarding limits on contributions.

5. Do you favor the full public disclosure of all activities and expenditures by those seeking to influence legislative or Executive Branch activity by lobbyist?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes - "Except on complex complicated tax matters."

10. Will you support a reorganization of the Congressional committee structure both now and at regular intervals in the future as a means of assuring that jurisdictions correspond to the Congress's needs?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes

11. Will you work for effective legislation to accomplish this goal and help to see that it is vigorously enforced?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes

7. Do you favor a law requiring annual, public disclosure of financial holdings and interests by Members of Congress and their staffs and by high officials of the Executive Branch?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes

8. Will you seek the vigorous enforcement of conflict of interest laws?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes

9. Will you vote to abolish the closed rule?

Camacho - Yes
Talcott - Yes - "Except on complex complicated tax matters."

10. Will you support a reorganization of the Congressional committee structure both now and at regular intervals in the future as a means of assuring that jurisdictions correspond to the Congress's needs?

PROMOTED - David Blevins has been appointed manager of Bank of America's Fort Ord office, Regional Vice President James B. Wiesler announced recently. Blevins succeeds Patricia M. Schmeltz, recently promoted to operations officer at Seaside Bank of America. Blevins had been operations officer at bank's El Camino Kiely office in Santa Clara past two years. He joined Bank of America in Santa Cruz in 1965. He and his wife, Judith, have three children.

Employers Hiring Welfare Recipients May Claim Credit

Some California employers may not be aware that they may claim Federal income tax credit and be reimbursed for part of training costs when they hire certain welfare recipients, Director Sigurd I. Hansen of the Department of Human Resources said recently.

Under the Work Incentive (WIN) Program operating in most California counties, employable members of families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) are assisted by HRD in finding jobs to enable them to become self-supporting.

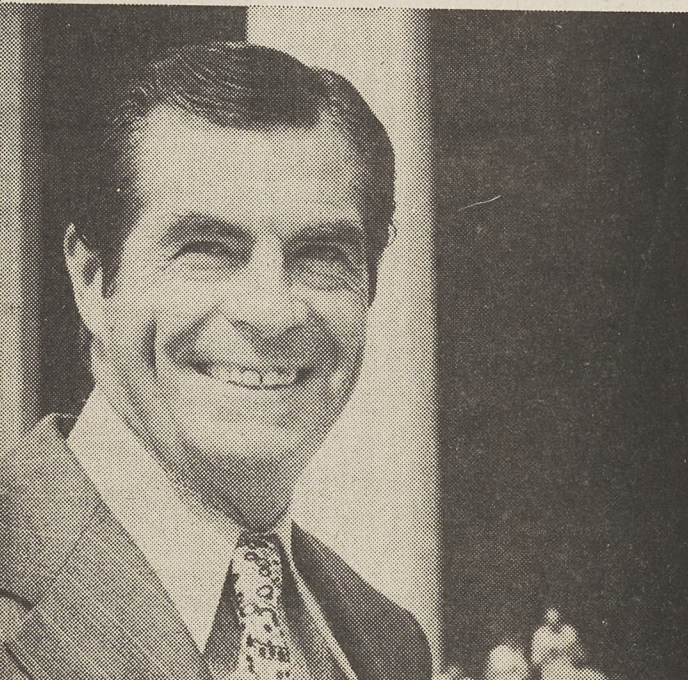

Employers who provide on-the-job training for WIN participants may be reimbursed for their expenses in training the participant. Employers who contract to provide such training will be reimbursed up to 50 percent of the starting wage rate during the duration of the training period, Hansen said. Length of training varies from four to 44 weeks depending on job complexity. In addition to this reimbursement.

The tax credit, which is deductible from the "bottom line" of the employer's computed income tax, amounts to 20 percent of wages paid during the first 12 months the employee works.

The 12 months need not be consecutive, but must be within two years of the date employee was first hired. Generally, the employee must work 12 months before the tax credit can be claimed, and the employer must retain the worker for at least another year after credit is claimed. The credit will not be lost when the employee, who works less than 12 months, and quits, becomes disabled or is fired for misconduct.

THE MONTEREY COUNTY TAXPAYERS' ASSN.
(MCTA) URGES YOU TO VOTE YES ON PROPOSITION 14
(The Watson Tax Limitation Amendment)
NOV. 7

Re-elect Congressman Burt Talcott.

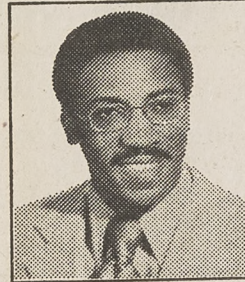

He's been working for you for 10 years. He still is.

Paid for by the Committee to Re-elect Congressman Burt Talcott
Dick Bruhn, President Myron Etienne, Secretary

These leaders oppose unfair state pay practices.

State Senator Mervyn Dymally

Assemblyman John J. Miller

Assemblywoman Yvonne W. Brathwaite

Assemblyman Willie Brown, Jr.

They urge you to vote YES on 15 on Nov. 7 to give minorities in state jobs a break.

Promises, promises.

The black community is all too familiar with broken promises and job discrimination by certain unscrupulous California politicians and greedy special interests.

That's what Proposition 15 is all about.

For the past six years, 160,000 state employees, many from minorities, have been promised "a fair day's pay for a fair day's work." They haven't gotten it. Instead, they've gotten layoffs and below-par wages because of salary budget slashes or outright vetoes by the Governor.

This callous treatment comes at a time of high unemployment when minorities find their best hope for good jobs in public service.

At a time when blacks and other minorities are enrolling in the University of California and other state universities and colleges in record numbers, higher education funds are cut, and our best faculty members are leaving for greener pastures. According to Charles J. Hitch, UC president, they can never be replaced.

The high cost of living.

Anyone who goes to the supermarket or who pays rent knows what it costs to live these days. Food and housing are at an all-time high.

But if you are a state employee, your pay still lags 10% to 25% behind the average pay for similar work in private industry.

In other words, state government is making second-class citizens out of its own workers. Second-class citizenship has no place in America.

A muzzle on grievances.

Almost everywhere in California, citizens have a right to express their grievances and have something done about them. Twenty-one other states give their employees the right to bargain collectively. But not California. When it comes to employee grievances, state bosses here don't even have to listen. There is no method, at present, of making negotiations meaningful.

State employees want—and Proposition 15 will give them—a chance for a decent standard of living through the same wages paid for comparable work in private industry. Also, the right to deal meaningfully with their employers, by collective bargaining. An end to the threat of any strike that might halt state services in welfare payments, health care, consumer protection, law enforcement, and education.

State employees say they're tired of discrimination in their salaries and benefits. They want equal treatment with everyone else. Proposition 15 is the logical answer.

No extra taxes.

Will Proposition 15 cost you anything? There is absolutely no need for it to cost you one cent in additional taxes. The State General Fund already has a huge unused surplus of more than $560 million; far more than the $75 million or less needed to take care of any and all adjustments in state pay levels.

Only you have a right to decide how your money should be spent. Don't let greedy politicians waste it on favorite pork-barrel projects, while the people who do the work are underpaid and without a voice in their own working conditions.

Right on for California.

Prop. 15 is a bright new day for California. A better break for blacks who work for the state.

Protection of jobs already in existence and better-paying jobs in the future. An end to second-class status for state personnel. An end to political meddling with state salaries. And not one cent in extra taxes.

Give minorities in state service a break!
Stop political wheeling-dealing with state pay!
Put soul and heart in employer-employee relations!
Keep California working!

President Nixon vs. Senator McGovern

(Or, change that will work vs. change that won't work.)

President Nixon's idea of change is orderly—and works. Senator McGovern's ideas about change can easily prove chaotic—and won't work.

Under President Nixon, America has become quieter than it was in 1968. Our campuses are back to scholarship. Our cities no longer have frequent riots. The drug traffic into America has slowed down. Last year, for the first time, 80 major cities reported a decrease in crime. Funding to save our environment has increased 500%—and the effects are beginning to be felt. The door has been opened to China. A limited arms treaty has been signed with Russia. Half-a-million Americans have been brought home from Vietnam.

There's much, much more. All of it change. But orderly change. Compare this change, the change we have had under President Nixon, with the change we could have under Senator McGovern. Many already have. And they're among those saying that America needs President Nixon—now more than ever.

President Nixon.
Now more than ever.

Diana Ross Portrays Billie Holiday

Diana Ross makes her motion picture debut as the legendary Billie Holiday in Paramount Pictures' "Lady Sings the Blues."

It sticks fairly close to Lady Day's tempestuous true-life story, which ended tragically.

The film was given good reviews after its premiere in the East.

Billy Dee Williams, who was the recipient of critical raves for his portrayal of Gayle Sayers in the television movie "Brian's Song," co-stars with Miss Ross.

Hundreds of hours went into research for "Lady Sings the Blues" to create an authentic dramatization of the famed blues singer.

Sets, costumes and style, Miss Ross sings background scenes all many of Billie's most memorable songs, including "Lover Man," "Don't Explain," "Strange Fruit," "My Man" and "God Bless the Child."

The film drama features Richard Pryor.

What's Wrong with the COASTAL INITIATIVE?

VOTE NO ON
PROPOSITION NO. 20

BECAUSE:

- It lowers the value of property in coastal areas without compensation to the property owner—setting a precedent for similar confiscation in every area of the state.
- It reduces local tax revenues to counties, cities and school districts in the coastal areas with no provision for reimbursement from state tax sources—forcing higher taxes on local home owners.
- It provides for State zoning of all property within a so-called "coastal zone"—but defines the coastal zone in such a sloppy way that nobody knows exactly where it is.
- It establishes a virtual moratorium for almost five years on all building within a "permit area" which extends not just along the ocean but to such inland cities as Sacramento and Stockton.
- It divides cities in two—giving new state and regional commissions control over permits in one section of the city and leaving local control in the rest of the city.
- It blocks public as well as private construction: remodeling of residences in excess of $7500, sewer repairs, single family homes, harbor improvements, recreational development.
- It permits and encourages any person—who need not even be a resident of the state—to block indefinitely any construction for any purpose, by going to court without even having to post a bond.
- It stops people from building or remodeling even though they received a legal permit to do so before the November election.
- It endangers financing and federal funds for existing redevelopment projects, planned airport, harbor and civic improvements of all kinds.
- It creates unemployment problems of major proportions in the coastal areas affected.
- It provides no funds for new access roads to the beaches, or for any expansion of camping, picnicking and other recreational facilities for the public.
- It superimposes a new expensive state bureaucracy on existing planning agencies—without reducing the work load and cost to the taxpayers of existing agencies.
- It turns over decision making on development to appointed commissions and their "executive directors", regardless of the wishes of the majority of the people in the community affected.
- It sets up "stacked" commissions composed of members required to have "expertise in conservation, recreation, ecological and physical sciences, planning and education", with no provision for representation for labor, business, agriculture or home owners, and no provision for members with expertise in economics, taxation or employment problems.
- It makes land-use planning within the coastal zone a nightmare of conflicting jurisdictions by setting up new regional boundaries that do not conform to the boundaries of existing regional planning bodies.
- It fails to give the people of many affected counties any representation on the regional agencies that will determine their immediate building policies and long-range planning.
- It locks up the beaches from the public for new recreational use—while providing a windfall to the favored few now fortunate enough to own beach front homes in exclusive areas.
- It makes it impossible for the Legislature to enact reasonable coastal zoning controls for a four year period.

CONSERVATION—YES
but CONFISCATION—NO!

TUNA BROCCOLI CREAM SOUP

SATURDAY lunch or Sunday night supper often is built around soup and sandwiches. For a new treat, try this one.

- 1 can tuna
- 1 package frozen, chopped broccoli;
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine;
- 2 tablespoons flour;
- 1 teaspoon salt;
- dash pepper;
- dash nutmeg;
- 1 quart milk;
- 1/3 cup broccoli liquid.

Drain tuna. Break into large pieces. Cook broccoli as directed on package. Drain, saving liquid. Melt butter. Blend in flour and seasonings.

Add milk gradually and cook until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Add Broccoli, liquid and tuna. Heat. Serves six.

WHERE'S THE MAN who doesn't go for a really good soup? This one is ideal for a healthy male--and, as a matter of fact, was devised by one. Add any available leftovers and inspirational tidbits from the refrigerator, and with a salad and crusty French Bread, it makes a meal in itself.

- 3 pounds soup meat with bone;
- 2 quarts salted, boiling water;
- 1 large onion;
- 40 cloves;
- 1 tablespoon mixed herbs;
- 1 pound medium carrots, sliced;
- 1 bunch leeks, sliced;
- 5 medium potatoes, quartered.

Boil the meat for several minutes in salted water. Turn down the heat and remove surface scum. Add onion, which has been stuck with cloves, and herbs and simmer for three to four hours. Remove the onion and the meat and cut away bone and gristle. Cut meat into small pices and remove marrow from bone, returning both to soup broth. Add potatoes, carrots and leeks and cook until tender. Season to taste and serve in large man-sized soup bowls. Number of servings depends on appetites.

As I See It

BY MEL VERCOE

Peace in Vietnam before the election? Sorry—maybe before next election, the one in 1976, but certainly not before this one next week, because no matter how valuable it would be to Mr. Nixon's campaign to be able to announce that he had finally fulfilled his 1968 promise it just is not going to happen. The whole sorry mess—the secret negotiations that we were so discreetly allowed to find out were going on, the Kissinger trips to and from Hanoi—the whole bundle had just one basic goal, to convince a gullible American public that peace was at last here and all we had to do was reelect the President so he could finalize the details.

Unfortunately for Mr. Nixon, the North Vietnamese were one or two steps ahead of him. He had indicated willingness to accept their terms, knowing that he could later reject any or all parts of the agreement during later discussions so that it would never be signed. Knowing he had no intention after twenty years of unflinching opposition to communism of accepting such terms, the North Vietnamese simply called his bluff and demanded a signature before the election, mainly to embarrass Mr. Nixon.

I can make an INVISIBLE VINYL REPAIR

—JUST LIKE THIS!—
It may be hard for you to believe but damaged vinyl can be repaired perfectly. I can do it and save you 75% over replacement. Burns, rips, scratches and ugly tears like the one illustrated, disappear forever from your upholstery. First I weld the damage areas together. It will be as strong and flexible as the original material. Second I retinture with a perfect texture-match. Third I match color, or I change the color to suit your taste.
RECOLORING old faded and scuffed surfaces makes old furniture like new for little cost. The finished job will never crack, chip or peel. I guarantee it.

Thus, it is extremely unlikely that after an 18 year record of failure to honor an agreement a promise by either Mr. Nixon or any other American dignitary to sign something next week or next month is likely to be taken at all seriously by the North Vietnamese. But the actual peace agreement is not the important thing, not in Washington. The basic purpose — to fool a lot of people, has probably been achieved.

It's not too late for open space.

Proposition A will establish the Monterey Peninsula Regional Park District. The District will work with your community to meet your local park and open space needs.

PROPOSITION A WILL:

- Preserve scenic areas
- Provide parks and open space for your family's enjoyment
- Increase your property value.
Parks and open spaces make the area more desirable.
- Curb over-development.
Permanent open spaces can not become subdivisions.
- Keep taxes from skyrocketing.
Every new subdivision means more roads, sewage, schools, more taxes. Public ownership of land has proved to be less costly to the taxpayer.

Vote yes on A.

Committee for Open Space, Earl Moser, Chmn.

An open letter from Jane Van Hook

Dear Voters:

I am proud to explain why I, a black woman, attorney, advocate for the rights of poor people, have decided to re-register Republican and support the President for re-election in 1972. The answer to these questions is twofold: (1) the President's performance record and (2) the need for black people to be effectively involved in both political parties.

After researching the record, I concluded that President Nixon's performance deserved not only my support, but the support of every minority in America. I would like to share some of the facts with you and ask you to stop listening to empty promises. Here are some facts - check them out.

The Record	The Results of 8 Years Under the Previous Democratic Administration	The Current Year Under Pres. Nixon
Aid to black colleges	$108 million	$200 million
Aid to minority Bank Deposit Program	Did not exist	245 million
Aid to minority Business Enterprise	200 million	700 million
Civil Rights Enforcement Budget	75 million	602 million
Equal Employment Opportunity Budget	8.2 million	30.5 million
Fair Housing Enforcement Budget	2 million	10.9 million
Office of Minority Business Enterprise	Did not exist	43 million

- President Nixon has appointed more Blacks to top government posts than any other President in history
- President Nixon is the first president to ask for Federal funds to fight sickle cell anemia.
- President Nixon opened up jobs through Federal Manpower Programs for 1.2 million Blacks and minority members last year alone.
- President Nixon has more than doubled Spanish-speaking appointments, making over $19,000.00 a year.
- Military housing non-discriminatory units increased from 20% in 1967 to 98% in 1971.
- Total support budget for Indians on reservations is $1.2 billion dollars compared with $455 million in 1968.

I firmly believe that Black people must not continue to use the same old political strategy which has brought failure to our people for the past 40 years. We must recognize the fact that there are two major political parties in our Country. We must be active in both parties if we are to insure our constant advancement.

Today approximately 88% of the black voters are registered Democrats. This present imbalance of political power is responsible for neither party being effectively responsive to our need.

But cooking with gas uses less gas than cooking electrically.

Here's why: Much of your electricity comes from steam-electric power plants fueled by natural gas. It takes 50% more gas to make electricity for an electric range than you use directly in a gas range for the same amount of cooking.

Gas cooking is cheaper too. So cook with gas. You'll help conserve natural gas. And you'll save yourself some money. PG&E

PERFECT EATING MEAT EVERY TIME

USDA CHOICE BEEF Every roast, every steak, every beef cut is from USDA Choice beef. It is awarded that grade by official United States Department of Agriculture meat experts, who are the recognized authorities in grading beef. All Safeway pork, lamb, veal and poultry are also top quality!

AGED FOR TENDERNESS Safeway beef receives scientifically controlled aging for just the right number of days to reach peak of tenderness and flavor.

CAREFULLY TRIMMED Our famous method of close-trimmed meat removes excess fat and bone. You get more meat to eat for your money and meat that cooks just right.

SPECIAL CUTS If you need meat cut a special way for your recipe, just ask one of our meat experts and he'll be happy to prepare it just as you want it.

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE If for any reason you are not completely satisfied with any purchase of Safeway meat, just tell us and get your money back. Exceptional thing about our guarantee — there are no exceptions!
